

CIO Services from PSM Partners

Have the expertise, when you need IT!

How can we help?

Our approach starts with understanding your business strategy and key objectives. Through that understanding, PSM Partner's CIOs can align your technology to those objectives driving business growth and supporting the organization. Our team can produce short-term and long-term technology roadmaps, along with providing the needed leadership to execute that delivery for your organization.

CIO Consulting Services:

Create business value through technology

Establish IT policies, strategies, and standards

Evaluate, recommend, and drive implementation of strategic technologies

Strategic planning of business growth objectives

Oversee technology operations to ensure optimal performance

Direct and organize technology projects

Interim

Services to fill the gap while you search for a replacement

Fractional

Recurring time per week, month, or quarter

Projects

Purposeful point-in-time service to deliver a strategic need